

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Mrs. Annie R. Sisson, Zion City, had Waukegan concern deliver furniture on Sunday. Drivers arrested for desecration of Sabbath.

Onwentsia Club voted to go "dry." Buttermilk to be refreshment of Lake Forest golfers.

Eighteen of 25 graduates of Lane Technical School who went as teachers to Porto Rico back. Say they are glad to get home and get "regular" meal.

Seven movies slashed by censors. Kidnaping, murder, robbery and naughty canary blamed.

Richard Wernecke, 739 Brompton av., fined $25 and costs for assaulting brother-in-law, Former Ald. Stephen Gosselin.

Slayton Drug Co., 2159 W. Madison st., fined $50 for selling 3 cents worth of heroin to "opium squad."

Auto skidded on Wilson av. Mrs. Anna Hoaglund, 3138 Bernard st., injured.

Limitation for filing corporation tax schedule changed to March by government. 800 local corporations affected.

Case against Thos. W. Healy, tango teacher, charged with taking $6,750 gems, continued until July 16.

Axe murder suspect arrested in Pierceton, Ind.

Gerrit Luxen, 132 West 103d pl., suicided. Rope.

Twenty boarders at 4338 South Hermitage av. fought police to prevent arrest of Peter Buchankow, insane.

Mob beat A. Hausner, conductor, at Taylor and Paulina sts. Claimed he threw Joseph Goldberg from car.

Franklin Head leaves $379,200 to three daughters.

Methodist camp meeting opens at Desplaines.

Too late for preparation, real estate board asks postponement of civic celebration until next year.

Campaign started for I. C. suburban station at Monroe st.

Lyman E. Cooley, engineer Lakes to Gulf Deep Water Way Ass'n, replied to Senator Burton's attack on waterway. Says he sees no reason to delay development.

John W. Brown, arrested as disorderly, tried to speak from sill of Criminal Court Bldg. Threatened to jump off ledge if molested.

Joseph Bruzek, 2941 W. 25th st., up for non-support. Judge to get treatment for his 5 dwarf children to make them normal.

Judge Caverly wants wives of wife beaters provided for by state while hubbies serve sentence.

Charge against Samuel Gratz, Hotel Astor, on taking goods under false pretenses dismissed. Complainant would not prosecute.

90,000 municipal bonds sold yesterday. Total $164,000.

Board of Review will meet Monday to hear complaints on assessments.

Mrs. Florence H. Hutcherson wants divorce. Claims hubby broke nose and horsewhipped her.

Swarm of bees entered Grand Crossing police station. Police routed by invaders.

Chris. Brown, 6816 Wentworth av., waiter Thompson's restaurant, stabbed; Alexander Malich, 301 W. Chicago av., arrested.

Joseph Kapler met 2 strangers. Offered job. Put up $169 as security. Strangers gone.

Case of Levi Smith, 6310 Greenwood av., and Benj. Wilson, 716 W. Madison st., continued until Friday. Are held on serious charge made by Jennie Rossner, 14.

Edward, 7, and William Reilly, 5, missing. Mother fears father, from whom she is separated, has taken children.

J. T. Duffy, Colberg, Ill., stuck out foot while riding on train. Foot crushed and internally injured.

Policewoman Francis Wilsey tried to arrest Hyman Wolf, dancing